

Ross Duran NIBA Scholarships for IB Diploma Candidates of 2022

Ross Duran spent his career in education instilling an awareness of our responsibilities as global citizens. His commitment to fostering international mindedness was perhaps most evident in his founding role in the creation of the IB World Student Conferences, which focused on bringing youth from IB World Schools together to engage with issues of global significance.

The Northwest Association of IB World Schools (NIBA) honors his legacy by offering two $1500 scholarships to students who best demonstrate the traits of the IB learner profile with a focus on seeing their own IB experience as a global one.

The Specifics:

A. IB Diploma Coordinators may only put forward 2 candidates per school. One must meet the criteria of demonstrated financial need (as determined by the coordinator).

B. Students put forth must be Diploma Candidates from the class of 2020.

C. The students put forth through an internal process of the school's choosing should, in some meaningful way, embody the following component of the IB mission statement:

The International Baccalaureate aims to develop inquiring, knowledgeable and caring young people who help to create a better and more peaceful world through intercultural understanding and respect.

D. To enter your students, please fill out THIS FORM by April 25th.

The Ross Duran Scholarship Committee will meet in May and scholarship recipients will be chosen randomly. (Possibly from a[n] (international looking) hat.)
